

I am writing in response to a notification from Indiana Attorney General Steve Carter regarding the Consumer Bankers Association's challenge to Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I voluntarily joined the no-call list to limit the interruptions of my time. Members of the CBA have alternative means of contacting their customers, and challenging Indiana's law seems a vague attempt at circumventing the desires of Indiana's residents in order to make sales calls.